

Decisions for Using the GOLD Assessment Tool with ELL students

Note for Early Learning Sessions: Teachers should assess using the standard administration sections, regardless of the child's first language. Input for ELLs progress can be gathered from families and other school personnel able to speak the child's language.